LAST SUNDAY

2nd Sunday of Christmas. Pastor Paul will be preaching. “What can we hear from the Wise Guys?” Read Matthew 2:1-12

We Three Kings joke: We Little Folk!

Who are the wise men/women in our lives?

The dimming of the star could mean asking for directions (especially men) and knowing that dimming may have other meanings for us.

The Insiders didn't see the star/Messiah sightings. The Outsiders got it!

Jesus came for all! (There are no outsiders and insiders)

The Jesus Family was all about hospitality.

Is our Jesus Family all about hospitality?

God beckons us to go forward, even when the star is dim or can not longer be seen.

The work of Christmas starts at Christmas. When the stable scene empties, the work begins.

When day comes, we step out of the shade, aflame and unafraid.
The new dawn blooms as we free it.
For there is always light,
if only we're brave enough to see it.
If only we're brave enough to be it. Amanda Gorman
