LAST SUNDAY

Sunday was Pentecost Sunday. Most wore red. The Day of Pentecost transformed ordinary followers, like you and me, into extraordinary witnesses for the faith. So beware! Ya might get transformed! Pastor Paul will be preaching. A choral reading of Acts 2:1-21

Pastor Paul gave a comparison to this major Christian feast compared to Christmas, Easter, Advent, Lent, and Valentine's Day. And yet, this critical Birthday of the Church seems to pale in comparison. No candy. No flowers. No carols. No cards.

What have we done or not done to create this reality? The world has not figured out what to do with this day.

Are we The Church for others?

What do we do with narrative that has disciples crammed into one place, these friends of Jesus, in apparent hiding place?! Playing it low key

What do we do with a story that has so much public display of God?! Our society finds this type of display a bit too much/embarrassing. The Holy Spirit imparts gifts for all to demonstrate in our own ways/manners.

The gifts benefit only those to who the gifted GIVE.

The Seed Depository in Heaven Dream.

What did Pastor Paul say that impacted you?
